Dealing with misconduct related retractions is never easy and issues such as confidentiality, transparency, and whistleblowing can complicate the situation. Join us for a discussion on how researchers, journal editors, universities, research integrity officers, federal regulators and others can better collaborate to prevent and manage retractions.

Fort Collins, Colorado, Hilton
Conference Sessions: July 20th & 21st
Guidance Document Generation: July 22nd

$350 Early Bird Registration until May 9th
After May 9th registration is $500
CSU Affiliates receive a special rate of $200

Cost includes hot breakfast, lunch, snack, and an evening reception

---

Speakers Include:
Journal Editors
Researchers & Authors
COPE
Legal Counsel
Research Integrity Officers
Retraction Watch

---

Brian Martinson
Minneapolis VA Center for Chronic Disease Outcomes Research

Adam Marcus
Retraction Watch

Charon Pierson
Committee on Publication Ethics

---

For Speakers, Event Information, and Registration Visit
https://vprnet.research.colostate.edu/oriconference/
Or contact Carolyn.Broccardo@Colostate.edu

---

This conference is funded by the Office of Research Integrity, U.S. Department of Health, grant #ORIIR150014 and Colorado State University