- Request any book or article unavailable in Colorado State University Libraries. Articles available in print at the libraries can also be requested through ILL. Print articles will be scanned and delivered electronically.
- Over 90% of articles requested are delivered within 3 working days. View articles via Electronically Received Articles section of ILLiad (they will be in PDF).

COURSE RESERVE http://lib.colostate.edu/reserve/ FAQ: https://lib.colostate.edu/reserve/shelf_res_faq
- Why use course reserve? Required readings placed on reserve allow students timely, unencumbered access.
- Electronic Reserve (ER) allows 24/7 access to online reading throughout the semester. ER is our default reserve service.
- Instructor owned textbooks and library books may be placed on Shelf Reserve (located at Loan/Reserve Desk).
LIBRARY INSTRUCTION http://lib.colostate.edu/services/research/instruction
- Tailored face-to-face library instruction and/or customized research guides for classes.
- Sessions can be held in Morgan Library’s Computer Classrooms which are equipped with workstations for demonstration and hands-on instruction.
- Consultations on assignments that require students to conduct research and use information resources. Instructors are encouraged to combine library instruction with a research assignment.

ENDNOTE http://libguides.colostate.edu/endnote
- EndNote, a bibliography management tool, is available for users in the Morgan Library on all desktop and laptop computers in the library.

USING CSU’S JOURNAL COLLECTION: FindIt@CSU
FindIt is your pathfinder to a number of services at the CSU Libraries:
- Link to the full-text of a journal article if CSU has a current subscription.
- Check whether CSU owns the journal or book.
- Automatically fill out the InterLibrary Loan form.

Two Ways to Use FindIt:
1. Databases: The FindIt button appears next to citations within many library databases. Clicking on the button takes you to a menu that lists the options for that citation, including full text of the article if CSU has a subscription to the serial it is in.
2. Journal Titles: http://lib.colostate.edu/sfx/ejournals/
The Journal Titles form can be used to browse the Libraries’ online journal collection, search for a specific journal title, or link directly to an article if a complete citation is available. To link directly to an article, provide the journal title or ISSN, date, volume, issue and start page. ISSN searching is the most accurate.

FindIt@CSU and Google Scholar
The FindIt button can be activated within Google Scholar to provide easy access to CSU’s online subscriptions. Google searches across many disciplines and covers a wide variety of resources, including journal articles, theses, books, abstracts, and more. Although Google Scholar is aimed at the academic community, it uses a very broad definition of "scholarly literature." It is important to realize that not everything in Google Scholar is peer reviewed.

Configuring Google Scholar to Display the FindIt@CSU Link
The FindIt link will automatically display for users accessing Google Scholar from on campus, but off-campus users will have to configure Google Scholar to display the link. See http://libguides.colostate.edu/googlescholar for instructions on configuring Google Scholar.

Example of FindIt display within Google Scholar results:
Inferences of competence from faces predict election outcomes
A Todrov, AN Mandisodosa, A Goren, CP Hall - Science, 2005 - science.sciencemag.org
Abstract We show that inferences of competence based solely on facial appearance predicted the outcomes of US congressional elections better than chance (eg. 68.8% of the Senate races in 2004) and also were linearly related to the margin of victory. These ...

HELP DESK (970-491-1841)
The CSU Libraries Help Desk offers a single service point to help you with your research and technology needs. Obtain assistance with using: article databases and other research materials; off-campus databases; Libraries’ Web site; electronic reserve; applications on library computers (including printing); and more. Stop at this desk for referrals to subject librarians, locating books, reserving a presentation room, large-format poster plotting/printing, and preliminary help with your computer.

PRIMO is Coming!
By January 1st (but after the fall semester) CSU Libraries will have a new way to search for books and articles. Watch for announcements and information on how to search and use it.
